

POSITIVISM

INDUCTION LEADS TO TRUTH

IDEAS EXIST EXTERNALLY
IDEAS ARE STATIC
WORDS & IDEAS ARE 1:1

Your meaning is obscured by stylistic faults. Revise for correct grammar and punctuation.

CLASSICISM

DEDUCTION LEADS TO TRUTH

IDEAS EXIST EXTERNALLY
RHETORIC CONVEYS IDEAS

Good thesis, but the supporting claims don't fit. Revise for more effective communication.

EXPRESSIVISM

DIALECTIC LEADS TO TRUTH

IDEAS EXIST INTERNALLY
IDEAS ARE EVER-CHANGING
METAPHOR APPROXIMATES IDEAS

I think I get you. But try exploring some metaphors to see which feels closest to your inner truth.

SOCIAL CONSTRUCTIONISM

TRUTH IS A CONSTRUCT

AN IDEA EXISTS IN SOCIAL SPACE
AN IDEA IS EVER-CHANGING
WORDS CONSTRUCT IDEAS

You are borrowing academic clichés. How might those words and phrases be subverting your analysis.
